

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.

Dear Chairman Powell:

My name is Randy McKinney, and I live in Somerset, Kentucky. I heard news today of your plans to regulate broadband access to telephone companies. Let me be the first to say that you would be complete idiots for doing so. I don't WANT to take my business to a big name ISP such as Verizon, AOL, Compuserv, GTE, etc. I've had very bad experiences with them. As a consumer for 7+ years on the internet, I know that the only way to get completely honest and reliable service is to go with a smaller, local ISP. By making this step, you will kill that kind of service as the market moves to total broadband service.

Don't be any more stupid than you already are.

Sincerely,

Randy McKinney
